THE GRAVE OF DOUGLAS.

BY PARK BENJAMIN.

[Stephen a Douglas is buried by the shore of Lake Erie, a short distance from Chicago. A few boards around a small enclosure are all that mark the spot.—Correspondent.]

Douglas lies buried by the solemn shore
Of Michigan—the lake he loved so well—
And its resounding waters are his knell,
And his lament their never ceasing roar;
No monumental marble marks the spot,
No stone, engraved with one recording line,
But a rude fence around the narrow lot,
Which holds his corse, whose sprit was divine,
Is all that bids the passing traveler pause
O'er one who deemed it glorious to spend
His life in service of his country's cause,
And who was firm and faithful to the end;
He needs no stone; the lake exalts his fame,
And every wind that stirs it speaks his name.

The Wounded After a Battle.

B. F. Taylor gives the following account of the horrors of a battlefield, witnessed by him at Chickamauga:

The surgeon laid off the green sash and the tinseled coat, and rolled up his sleeves, spread wide his cases filled with the terrible glitter of silver steel, and makes ready for work. They begin to come in, slowly at first, one man nursing a shattered arm, another borne by his comrades, three in an ambulance, one on a stretcher—then faster and faster, lying here, lying there, each waiting his terrible turn. The silver steel grows cloudy and lurid; true, right arms are lopped like slips of golden willow; feet that never turned from the foe, forever more without an owner, strew the ground. The knives are busy, the saws play; it is bloody work. Ah, the surgeon with heart and head, with hand and eye fit for such a place, is a prince among men: cool and calm, quick and tender, he feels among the arteries, and fingers the tendons as if they were harp-strings. But the cloud thunders and the spiteful rain patters louder and fiercer, and the poor fellows come creeping up in broken ranks like corn beaten down with the flails of the storm.

"My God!" cried the surgeon, as looking up an instant from his work, he saw the mutilated crowds borne in; "My God! are all my brave boys cut down!" And yet it thundered and rained. A poor fellow writhes, and a smothered moan escapes him.

"Be quiet, Jack," says the surgeon, cheerfully; "I'll make you all right in a minute." It was a right arm to come off at the elbow, and "Jack" slipped off a ring that clasped one of the poor, useless fingers that were to blend with the earth of Alabama, and put it in his pocket.—He was making ready for the "all right." Does "Alabama" mean "here we rest?" If so, how sad yet glorious have our boys made it, who sink to rest

"With all their country's wishes blest."

Another sits up while the surgeon follows the bullet that had buried itself in his side; it is the work of an instant; no solemn council here—no lingering pause; the surgeon is bathed in patriotic blood to his elbows, and the work goes on. An eye lies out upon a ghastly cheek, and silently the sufferer bides his time.

"Well, Charley," says the doctor, dressing a wound as he talks, "what's the matter?" "Oh, not much, doctor; only a hand off!" Not unlike was the answer made to me by a poor fellow at Bridgeport, shattered as if by lightning: "How are you now," I said. "Bully!" was the reply. You should have heard that word as he said it; vulgar as it used to seem, it grew manly and noble, and I shall never hear it again without a thought for the boy that uttered it, on the dusty slope of the Tennessee; the boy—must I say it?—that sleeps the soldier's sleep within an hundred rods of the spot where I found him.

So it is everywhere; not a whimper nor complaint. Once only did I hear either. An Illinois Lieutenant, as brave a fellow as ever drew a sword, had been shot through and through the thighs, fairly impaled by the bullet—the ugliest wound I ever saw. Eight days before he weighed one hundred and sixty. Then he could not have swung one hundred and twenty clear on the floor. He had just been brought over the mountains; his wounds were angry with fever; every motion was torture; they were lifting him as tenderly as they could; they let him slip, and he fell, perhaps six inches. But it was like a dash from a precipice to him, and he wailed out like a young child, tears wet his thin, pale cheeks; but he only said, "My poor child! how can they tell her?" It was but for an instant; his spirit and his frame stiffened up together, and with a half smile he said, "Don't tell anybody, boys, that I made a fool of myself." The Lieutenant sleeps well, and, alas! for the "poor child"—how did they tell her.

A soldier fairly riddled with bullets, like one of those battle-flags of Illinois, lay on a blanket gasping for breath.—"Jimmy," said a comrade, and a friend before this cruel war began, with one arm swung up in a swing, and who was going home on furlough, "Jemmy, what shall I tell them at home for you?"—"Tell them," said he, "that there isn't hardly enough left of me to say 'I,' but hold down here a minute; say to Kate that there is enough of me left to love her till I die." Jemmy got his furlough that night, and left the ranks forever.

THE SEASON TO SOW GRAIN.—Quite a difference of opinion prevails among farmers in regard to the proper time for putting the seed of cereal crops into the ground—some contending that it should be done in the Fall, or as soon as the early rains put fallow land in a condition to admit of its being effectually harrowed, while others believe the first of February to be early enough. Among the many reasons given by the latter class, the most cogent are that the early rains cause innumerable seeds to vegetate and grow, which can be destroyed by working the land, and give the new crop the whole strength of the soil, and prevent its being choked and decimated in its natural force of growth by weeds. They are also of opinion that the seed of grain is greatly injured by remaining in the ground throughout the entire wet season, and therefore prefer to plant it at a time when it will vegetate and grow quickly. Others favor the system of fallowing their lands in order to facilitate the sowing of their grain as early in the fall as possible, and thereby give as extended a term as conveniently in their power for the crop to grow and mature. We are inclined to believe that the system of fallowing land will naturally become universally prevalent in our valleys, inasmuch as it will be found that working the soil when it is wet will be productive of greater injuries to the crops than the benefits resulting from the indication of weeds will counterbalance. On light, sandy soil there is not that danger of injury resulting from the immediate use of the plow as on heavier land of an adhesive quality. A great portion of the land of this valley, particularly where remote from the rivers, is stiff and adhesive, and if worked when it is wet would be more fitted for making bricks than for yielding a crop of grain. Such land can only be worked without injury being done to it when it is only moist enough to admit of deep plowing. It would be difficult to find it in a perfectly suitable conditian during the rainy months; and it is only late in the spring or some time after the rains, when the water has penetrated deep enough into the soil and equally through it, that the condition of adhesive land suitable and proper for the plow can be found. The first rains of the season make the surface too wet, while it is found so dry a few inches below the surface that it is next to an impossibility for the plow to penetrate to a proper depth. The soakage of the land by winter rains in this State is so sudden and the evaporation so gradual in the Spring, that the latter season is preferable for the plowing of extensive fields, having in view the proper condition of the soil, and the term in which it remains sufficiently prolonged for the accomplishment of the work.—Stockton Independent.

HOME.—A home! It is the bright, blessed, adorable phantom that site highest on the sunny horizon that girdeth life. When shall it be reached? It is not the house, though that may have its charms; nor the field carefully tilled, and streaked with your own footpaths; nor the trees, though their shadow be to you like that of a "great rock in a weary land;" nor yet is it the fireside, with its cozy comforts; nor the loved ones; nor the books; but more than all these, it is the presence. The altar of your confidence is there; and adorning it all, and sending your blood in passionate flow, in the ecstacy of your conviction that there, at least, you are understood; that there your errors will meet with gentle forgiveness; that there you may unburden your soul, fearless of harsh, unsympathizing ears; and there you may be entirely and joyfully yourself.

AN old writer says that to make an entirely beautiful woman it would be necessary to take the head from Greece; the bust from Austria; the feet from Hindostan; the shoulders from Italy; the walk from Spain; and the complexion from England. At that rate she would be a Mosaic, and the man who married her might well be said to have "taken up a collection."

THE swan-flower of Venezuela, when in full bloom, resembles in one position, a swan with closed wing, and in another, with outstretched wings. The interior of the flower is exceedingly beautiful. Venezuely also produces a flower called the pigeon-flower; it is like a bird's nest in shape, while its stamens and petals resemble a pigeon at rest.

A YOUNG gentleman says he thinks young ladies who refuse good offers of marriage are too No-ing by half.

THE SOLE SURVIVOR.—Charles S. Evans, sole survivor of the Crabb massacre at Cavorco, visited our city on Wednesday, and yesterday left for Bear Valley. He is a young man, as he was only fifteen years old at the time the murders took place. His youth saved his life.—He says they were riding into town when they were fired upon by some unseen Mexicans, but as the shots went over their heads no one was hit. The Americans immediately commenced loading, as most of the party had their guns and pistols empty, suspecting no danger. The Mexicans continuing their fire, Colonel Crabb gave the order to charge, when the Mexican leader, Rodriguez, was killed at the first fire. In the fight, the Mexicans state that they lost from thirty to forty men, but Evans thinks their loss was greater. They gave the Americans credit for being extraordinary shots. The Mexicans retreated into the church, which on the frontier is their fort, when Colonel Crabb's party took possession of the house opposite. The Colonel led a party of ten men to attack the church, intending, if they succeeded in effecting the opening of the door, for the remainder of the party to rush over. But the effort was foiled, as some were killed and others wounded, Col. Crabb receiving a wound in the arm. It being the dry season, the Mexicans succeeded in setting the thatched roof of the house in which the Americans were on fire. Col. Crabb refused to retreat and leave the wounded, as he said they would be murdered, and treated brutally; and he deemed it best to surrender, to save the lives of those who were unable to march, believing then there could be no cause for brutal action. He little knew the treachery of those he contended with.

Young Evans was not present at the massacre, he having been taken two leagues distant from the town. The Mexicans were unbounded in their admiration of the bravery of the party at their execution. It was the Mexicans who faltered, and they determined to shoot the unfortunate prisoners in the back, declining to face their indomitable courage even when bound. They were led out and shot in squads. A couple of days after Evans was taken to Cavorca, and as he entered a house a Mexican reached into an earthern jar and drew from it the head of Colonel Crabb, asking him if he knew who that was? The bodies of the murdered men were left lying upon the ground where killed, entirely divested of clothing. An Irishman, with a passport from the British Consul at Guaymas, was at this time in Cavorca, and was arrested as a spy. He was taken out to Col. Crabb's party before their death, with the intention of killing him if any one of them recognized him. Fortunately none of them knew him, and he was saved.

Evans understood the expedition, as we did at the time, to be: that Pasqueira offered to Col. Crabb and a party of Americans he might bring with him, a belt of land, provided the Americans would settle on it and keep the Apaches from crossing it to make raids upon Mexico.—Stockton Beacon.

"STRANGE WOMEN" IN WASHINGTON.—The Washington Evening Star says that the number of white prostitutes housed in the various wards of that city may be set down at the following figures: First Ward, 580; Second Ward, 518; Third Ward, 105; Fourth Ward, 200; Fift Ward, 310; Sixth Ward, 200; Seventh Ward, 450; total, 2,313. The number of these resident in Washington before the war was about 350. The colored prostitutes now in Washington and housed are set down at 1,542, and of this number seven-eighths have been colonized since the war broke out. At least a third of the whole number, white and black, are street walkers, of a character of unblushing indecency never before known in Washington, and are colonists from New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and some few of the Western cities. The whole number of public prostitutes, of every grade and color, in Washington, will not exceed 5,000, of whom not more than one-tenth resided in the District of Columbia previous to the war. There are a number of females sailing under false colors afloat here, and who, until they are found out, frequently manage to quarter themselves at the respectable boarding houses and hotels.

ALL practising physicians agree that when the eyes of a corpse are opened about two days after death, and the pupils are found to be mixed up so that nothing of them is to be seen, but the whole of the eye is dissolved into a wheyish or jellied mass, then real death is evident; where this is wanting death is uncertain.

WHAT is the difference between the Prince of Wales, the son of Esau, an orphan, and a baby? One is an heir-apparent, the other a hairy parent, the other nary a parent, and the other nary a hair apparent.

WHALING ON THE CALIFORNIA COAST.—The Monterey Gazette gives the following account of whaling operations in the Pacific:

Attracted by the facilities offered by the broad and capacious bay, with its secure anchoarge and immediate proximity to the Leviathans of the deep, several companies of whalers have located in Monterey and are pursuing their vocation with success. There are now three companies in the bay, and one in Carmelo, each comprising some twenty men, who are shareholders, or on "lays," after the ancient custom of the craft. Each maintain two or more boats, constantly cruising in the bay and offing. Heretofore the Portuguese have monopolized this business, but more recently the whole thing has passed into the hands of American citizens. Their try-works, whaling gear, of casks, blubber, bone, and all the varied paraphernalia of the business in the immediate proximity of town; the exciting chase and capture of the great fish within easy view of the shore; the subsequent beaching and cutting in of the carcase; the trying out; the lurid flames and dense smoke of the try-works; with the swarthy visages of the oleaginous Titans ministering at the obsequies of the monster, afford some idea of the dangerous business of whaling, without going down into the sea in great ships, and becoming intensely sick. In addition to the shore companies, the schooner Caroline E. Foote, Captain J. P. Davenport, owned in and hailing from this city, is prosecuting the business along the coast between the Golden Gate and Cape Lucas.

IRISH COMPLIMENTS.—The following compliments were paid to Sheridan in Norfolk by an Irish servant belonging to Mr. Coke, who attended him on his shooting excursion, and which Sheridan retold with great glee.

Shot the 1st (the birds are all getting away).—"More power to your honor!—Did you see one little fellow dhrop his legs as he went off? He'll never stand on his tin toes again."

Shot 2d (ditto).—"Tare an' agers, there they go! But didn't yer honor hear the shot rattle upon them like paze agin the windy? They'll pray never to see your honor agin on this side of the country."

Shot 3d (birds all fly off again).—"Tundher an' 'ouns! but they've cotched it! (after watching them awhile.)—There's three wounded, anyway, for they had hardly strength enough to fly over yon hedge; the devil a wink o' sleep they'll get the blessed night."

The 4th (a pheasant gets away).—"Well, I never seen a poor gentleman taken like him; he'll remember your honor many a long day for that. The spalpeen is carrying away more shot than would set up an iron-monger in Skibbereen."

Shot 5th (a snipe gets off). "Bother! you may cry crake, my little fellow; you may take yer long bill to the other world. You'll wake up to-morrow morning with the lumbago in your soft head."

Poor Sheridan could stand this no longer, but gave his countryman a fee for his ingenuity, and proceeded on his beat alone."

TRIPLETS.—The wife of a medical man at Fuentemajor, Spain, has just been delivered of three girls, all strong and healthy. The mother is forty-three years of age, and this is the thirteenth time she has been confined of triplets.—It would be interesting to learn how many of these thirty-nine children our professional brother is now blessed with.—Gaz. Med. de Lyon.

AN Irishman attending a Quaker meeting heard a young Friend make the following announcement:

"Brethren and sisters, I am going to marry a daughter of the Lord."

"Och, an' ye are," said Pat; "Faith an' be jabers, an' it'll be a long time before ye'll see yer father-in-law."

MARRIAGE.

Marriage is like a candle light,
Placed in the windows of a summer night,
Inviting all the insects of the air
To come and singe their pretty ringlets there,
Those that are out, but to get in,
And thise within, but to get out again.

"BOBBY, what does your father do for a living?"

"He's a philanthropist, sir."

"A what?"

"A philanthropist, sir, he collets money for Central Africa, and builds houses out of the proceeds."

THE marriage ring of Martin Luther has come into the possession of a Berlin artisan. The Royal Museum will buy it. There appears to be no doubt of the relic being genuine.

DR. Cummings, of London, not disheartened by his former short-comings as a prophet, predicts that the end of everything mundane will take place in 1867.

THE

Knight's Landing News.

OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER.

SATURDAY, DEC. 26TH, 1863.

Eastern News.

The Union's dispatches say: There is no news from Charleston or Tennessee.

General Rosecrans, it is said, has been assigned to the command of the Department of Missouri, vice Schofield, removed.

The death of General Michael Corcoran is announced in a dispatch from Fairfax Court House. His death was caused by a fall from his horse.

The report of a disaster to the ironclads at Charleston is not true.

A bill appropriating $20,000,000 for bounties has passed both Houses.

The following news was received from England: "The fight between Heenan and King took place near Dunbridge.—King won in twenty five minutes. The London Times says but little science was displayed on either side. Heenan's game throughout seemed to be to close and hug so as to crush his antagonist at once by dashing him violently to the ground. King's tactics were different and more creditable. It was reported that Heenan's shoulder was broken."

THE CHRISTMAS TREE, at the Yolo House, in this place, on Thursday evening, was, though an impromptu affair, an entire success. Most of children in the place were present and received with unmistakable delight the presents as they were distributed; but the children were not the only ones who enjoyed the hour. The ladies and gentlemen present were evidently much pleased to see each other there, and to find the juveniles so well provided for and so happy; and if a gentleman or lady's name were called to receive a special present (and there were many such), no visible marks of disappointment beclouded the face, but each stretched forth the hand to receive whatever was so graciously offered.

The presiding genius of the evening, with his hoary locks and cap, occupied a conspicuous seat among the lower branches of the tree, and though the old gentleman's face bore the marks of great antiquity, yet it was thought that his countenance occasionally beamed with delight at seeing all so merry. A dance took place afterwards, which was kept up until 4 o'clock Christmas morning.

THE next issue of our paper will bear date 1864. The present year, 1863, will then have been numbered with the past. The time will not be misspent if we should all take a retrospective view of our connection with the events of the year that will then have closed upon us forever, and, in so far as it is in our power, make amends for the wrongs done, correct the mistakes of the past, renew our resolutions of well doing, pay up old debts, and vow to make no new ones beyond our ability to meet promptly; and, finally, forgive all who have wounded our feelings or our pride, as we hope to be forgiven.

NORTHERN MINES.—The Shasta Courier, in speaking of the Pittsburg mines, says that last week a party of gentlemen for Sacramento and Yolo counties make an extensive examination of the several leading claims now being opened, and they unanimously pronounce in favor of these mines giving better promise of rich developments than any other mines in the State.

FAITHFUL DRIVER.—Hank Monk, a driver for the Overland Stage Company, was recently presented by Judge Turner, in behalf of the Company, at Carson City, Nevada Territory, with an elegant gold watch, valued at $600, given in appreciation of his faithful services.

W. M. RACKERBY'S Ball, given at Smith's Ferry, on Christmas Eve, was a success, although the weather was unfavorable. The supper which was prepared by Wm. Murdock was sumptuous.

THE Race between Adams' Black Colt, "Choctaw," and Whitmore & Reed's Oregon mare, "Amanda," will come off to-day over the Knight's Landing Course.

WE would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement, in another column, of Mrs. S. S. Holdridge, at Woodland.

THE Ball given by D. G. Elgin, at Cacheville, on Wednesday evening last, we understand was well attended. The weather prevented us from being present.

CALENDARS FOR 1864.—The Calendars for 1864 are now ready for distribution. Call and get one—free of charge.

The San Francisco and Marysville Railroad Again.

Some weeks since we propounded certain inquiries as to the condition and prospects of the above Road, and feel much gratified in being able to lay before our readers a statement from the Secretary of the Company, which we take from the Marysville Appeal. The reader will see from this statement that there is a very strong probability, amounting almost to a certainty, that work will be resumed on this road in the spring; and if once resumed it is certain to be pushed to a speedy and successful completion of the whole enterprise.

The company have entered into a contract with John H. Polhemus, San Francisco, to take effect on the 1st day of April next, for the construction of their road from Marysville to Vallejo, for the sum of $2,500,000, to be paid as follows: Two million dollars in bonds of the company, running ten years and drawing ten per cent. interest; two million dollars in stock of the company; two hundred thousand dollars in county bonds; three hundred thousand dollars in cash, county bonds, or bonds of the company, at the option of the company. The road is to be finished and stocked from Marysville to the Sacramento river in two years, and to Vallejo, complete, within four years from the first day of April next. No cash or county bonds shall be due or called for till the road shall have been completed from its terminus to Suisun City. No assessments shall be levied on the stockholders till January, 1865, and then not oftener than ten per cent. every six months. Polhemus and Captain Frisbie, the President of the Company, started on the last steamer for the East, to make arrangements necessary to comply with the contract. Polhemus expects, on his arrival in New York, to make such arrangements with Haskin as will prevent any delay or trouble arising from the unexpired time of the old contract, so that he can proceed at once with the negociations. It is understood that Polhemus has large capitalists interested with him in the contract. As a guard against a long delay in case of failure on the part of the contractor, the President of the Company holds an irrevocable power of attorney from Polhemus to cancel the contract, if, by the first day of June next, he shall have failed to secure the means necessary to comply with the contract.

THE AMENDED GAMING BILL.—Owen's amendment to the law against gaming makes it a misdemeanor to engage in any game of cards, dice, or other device, for money, checks, etc., and punishable by a fine of from fifty to three hundred dollars. The law makes a direct dash at and includes the prevalent game of "draw poker," and any game of cards played for money in public and private. Any Police Officer appointed by a Board of Supervisors or Commissioners who shall know or have reason to know of gambling and shall fail to use all means in his power to bring the parties engaged to punishment, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and fined from fifty to three hundred dollars, and be removed from office. It will be seen that the intention of the law is to prevent police officers from winking at gambling.

A PROPER VETO.—Governor Low yesterday vetoed the act just passed by the Legislature, transferring moneys from the Hospital to the Legislative Fund. The object of the transfer was to enable the members to draw their pay at once; but the Governor very justly concluded that this business of making Legislators preferred creditors by drawing on funds that are reserved for other specific purposes, was vicious and improper. The veto of the Governor was sustained by the Legislature.—Call of 21st.

SUICIDE.—On last Friday morning a man named Conrod Droth put an end to his existence by blowing out his brains in a room at the Chicago Hotel, San Francisco. The deceased was a native of Bavaria, Germany, but has friends residing at Manhattanville, N. Y.

GOOD SHOT.—D. F. Davenport, who resides some five miles below Marysville, on the Feather river, while out hunting ducks a day or two since, killed twenty-five mallard and teal ducks at one shot. Mr. D. offers a reward of a new hat to the hunter who will beat this shot.

THE Gold Hill News says that Solomon Heydenfeldt has commenced a suit in the First District Court against the Pioneer Stage Co., to recover $50,000 for injuries received by the upsetting of a stage.

ROBBERY.—On Saturday night a teamster, while sleeping in his wagon, at Barton's stable, Sacramento, was robbed of $162 50, which was in a belt around his waist.

MINERS in Idaho Territory give five dollars a day and board for digging a hundred dollars' worth of gold.

Board of Supervisors.

On Monday, December 14, 1863, the Board of Supervisors of Yolo County met at Woodland, and during the term disposed of the following business:

Contract for building bridge across Willow Slough, near Dr. Merritt's; was let to Merritt for the sum of $900. On motion, ordered that A. W. Woolaver be set off from Pine Grove School District No. 10, and the line of said district be so changed as to include the north-west quarter of Section 15, in township 8, N. R, 1 west in Buckeye district No. 10.—The report of Amos Mathews, engineer and superintendent of road leading from Washington to Yolo House, was received and placed on file. It appearing from the report of Amos Mathews that the quantity of 20,000 yards of earth is already graded and put up on Yulo road by contractors for building said road, it is ordered that the sum of six thousand dollars be allowed on said contract. Warrant to be drawn on County Road Fund. Ordered that the further sum of two thousand dollars be allowed Baker & Hubbard, on contract for building county bridge on Yolo road, payable out of County Road Fund. In the matter of petition for road one-half mile in length, running between the lands of D. Schindler and S. Morris, notices having been posted and bond filed, according to law, it is ordered that viewers be appointed to view the route of said road, and report to the Board on the 15th day of January, 1864. In the matter of the petition of E. C. Taylor and others, for road leading from Franklin School House to the town of Washington, same order as above. On motion it is ordered that the sum of two thousand dollars be allowed P. McManus on his contract for building Court House and Jail, payable out of County Building Fund. It appearing to the Board that the per diem allowance of Supervisor Bell through error had been overdrawn in the sum of $22 for the year 1863, it is ordered that said sum be deducted from said Bell's account. On motion adjourned to meet again on the 15th day of January, 1864.

TAXATION OF THE MINES.—The Secretary of the Interior, says the California Express, earnestly presses on the attention of Congress the taxation of the gold and silver mines. As far as we know he developes no particular plan, but says that, though in time of peace the Government could afford to permit the mines to rest without taxation, now, owing to the war, a revenue from that source becomes necessary. This is what we have always declared must be the result. First they will tax the mines to a degree that will render them worthless to the owner; then they will sell them to the highest bidder, taking care to rule out the bid of all "disloyal" persons, which, in Abolition parlance, means Democrats.

THE Boise News says that Comstock, of Washoe notoriety, is still discovering rich leads, but they do him no more good than his Washoe mines did. All Comstock seems to care for is to develop the country, and let others reap the benefit of his enterprise. Money is no object to him, but he has too much energy to eke out a miserable existence anywhere.

IN preparing the grounds for the new Gas Company at San Francisco, it becomes necessary to remove a portion of a rocky cliff sixty feet in height. To do this, it is intended to set off one hundred and forty kegs of gunpowder. Due notice will be given of the time when this extemporized earthquake will take place.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Bulletin says there exists in San Francisco among females a fearful infatuation to use chloroform, and the druggists are dealing it out without discrimination, seemingly regardless of the distressing consequences.

THE Visalia Delta, on the authority of a letter received in that county, says that Thomas Stonehouse, David McKenzie, and Bill Skinner, late of Tulare county, are in the Confederate army in Texas, along with Alonzo Ridley.

ON Saturday a keg of powder exploded in the house of J. B. Whitfield, at Sutterville, by which his son, 3½ years of age, was fatally injured, and himself, wife and child seriously injured.

COUNTY Warrants do not require a revenue stamp, so long as held by the parties to whom they are issued; but if endorsed and sold, they must be stamped.

ON Monday last, at Red Bluff, a man named Ferrill shot twice at a man named Ballard, but without effect. The Beacon says family affairs was the cause.

Sacramento Correspondence.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 23, 1863.

EDITOR KNIGHT'S LANDING NEWS.—The clouds for the past two days have been gathering, and to-day they opened in good earnest, and this evening the rain is pouring down right merrily, giving good indications of a wet Holiday season. The farmers, who began to feel uneasy at the non-appearance of the rain, I suppose will now wear bright faces.

SUNDAY THEATRES.

Our theatrical folks have come to grief, some twelve or fourteen of them having been summoned by the Chief of Police for playing on Sunday nights. The Menken did not make her debut in person in the Court, being represented by her counsel, Mrs. Saunders and Miss Lulu Sweet, who, to look at is as sweet as her name, being the only ladies who were present. The result of the trial was the conviction of about eight of them, including the pretty Jewess.

LEGISLATURE.

The Senate and Assembly adjourned to-day, to meet again on the 5th day of January—rather long holiday at the expense of the State; but I suppose they will meet with renewed vigor, and endeavor to make the session as short as possible. [In a horn.]

MARRIAGE.

Marriage is a feast where the grace is sometimes better than the dinner; or, as Ovid says: "If you wish to marry suitably, marry your equal." There must be somebody in trouble about marriages. A bill was introduced in both Houses, on the 19th, to amend the Marriage Law.

PREPARATIONS FOR CHRISTMAS.

Our dry goods stores, and every other store in the city, are making a good show, to tempt the eye and pocket, and from appearances I think we are going to have a merry Christmas.

THEATRICAL.

The new company have arrived, and open to night at the Metropolitan, with that good old comedy of Ben Johnson's, "She Stoops to Conquer," that best of all comic actresses, Mrs. Leighton, playing Miss Hardcastle, with Barry as Tony Simpkin. A good cast, you will say; especially for the place. We are promised for Christmas Dickens' story of "The Cricket on the Hearth," and I think only second to his "Nicholas Nickleby."

There is a rumor in town that Heenan has been thoroughly whipped by King, in the great international prize fight. If so, the Boy's laurels are gone, I think, never to be won by him again; at least, not on English soil.

Excuse my short epistle this week. I will try and do better next. So remain, Yours, truly, B.

SOME months ago a native Californian named Manuel Vera shot a settler in Solano county. He was arrested, but while in the hands of the Sheriff was forcibly taken, in Vallejo, by a party of men, who were disguised, and shot dead upon the spot. Information as to who were the parties engaged in the affair has reached the ears of the Grand Jury, and they have been indicted, but as it is feared they could not be arrested by the ordinary process, application was made to Governor Low for a military force. On Tuesday he issued an order to the Suisun Light Dragoons, Captain J. H. Marston, to perform the duty, and the party was arrested and taken to Benicia.

CONVICTED.—Randolph Snowden has been convicted and was sentenced last Tuesday to spend a time at San Quentin. The public will remember that about two or three months ago officers McComack and Jehu laid a plan for capturing Snowden in this way: One of the officers secreted himself at a point where he could make observations without himself being seen, while the other, seating himself on a curb-stone feigned drunkenness. Snowden saw his victim, examined him thoroughly, thought he was really drunk, and then stole his gold watch and chain; but before he could get far away he has arrested.

EIGHT hundred thousand slaves have been run into Georgia and Alabama alone from Kentucky, Tennessee, Louisiana, and Mississippi, by rebel owners, to escape the Union troops.

A Card.

We, the undersigned, take this method to render to Miss MARY H. SLAVAN this testimonial of our appreciation of her moral, social, and high intellectual attainments, and regret exceedingly that circumstances entirely beyond our control should call her from our midst, where her sphere of usefulness has been fully acknowledged by the recipients of her studious and careful instruction.

Administrator's Sale.

NOTICE is hereby given, That in pursuance of an order of the Probate Court of Yolo County, State of California, made on the 7th day of December, A. D., 1863, in the matter of the estate of MARGARET POSSEY, deceased, the undersigned Administrator of said estate will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, in lawful gold and silver coin of the United States and subject to confirmation by said Probate Court on Saturday, the 16th day of January, A. D. 1864, at 12 o'clock M., at the premises to be sold, the following described Real Estate—to wit:

One Hundred and Sixty Acres of Land, known as the Possey Ranch, being situated in said Yolo county, on the Sacramento river, about three miles below Knight's Landing, and being bounded on the north by Simmons' ranch; on the south by Webley's ranch; on the east by Sacramento river; and on the west by Laugenour & Curtis's ranch.

H. B. WOOD,
Administrator of the Estate of dec26-4t Margaret Possey, dec'd.

Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given, that on and after the 20th day of January, 1864, the undersigned will apply to the Register of the State Land Office for a Patent for the following described tract of State School Land: The East Half of the South-west Quarter of Section 32, Township 10, North Range 2, east of Mount Diablo base and Meridian.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

SOOTHING AND BRACING.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as

Dr. HOSTETTERS STOMACH BITTERS,

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction.—Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

The Great External Remedy of the Age

Is Sweet's Infallible Liniment. Rheumatic cripples who have been unable to work for years have been entirely cured by it in a few weeks. For all external injuries it is a most happy and unfailing remedy.

This Liniment is prepared by Dr. Stephen Sweet, the celebrated bone setter, of Connecticut, and has stood the test of twenty years without a single failure or a rival that could approach it. It is truly a friend in need, and every household should have it at hand. Try it.—Sold by all Druggists.

Female Beauty.

Ladies whose complexion is not as clear as they could wish, instead of resorting to those poisonous preparations in the form of Cosmetics, &c., should use Dr. Guysott's Compound of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. By purifying the blood and enlivening the respiration, it gives clearness to the complexion, brightness to the eye and elasticity to the step—

"Leaving that beautiful which was so,
And making that so which was not."

Vexatious eruptions on the face, resulting from want of exercise or sluggish circulation of the Blood, at once disappear under its influence, leaving a rich bloom of health, that no cosmetic can impart. Ladies who have tried it express themselves surprised and delighted.

ASSEMBLYMAN ROBBED.—On Monday night, as the member of Assembly from Northern Sierra was on his way from San Francisco to Sacramento, he took a state-room on board the steamer Chrysopolis in company with a stranger. He took his purse from his pocket, containing $36, and placed it under his pillow upon retiring, but finally concludad to put it back in his pocket. He slept in an upper berth. In the morning upon awakening he discovered that his purse was gone. He made known his loss to the person who was sharing the hospitalities of the room, and the stranger was much amazed, and wondered what could have become of the lost treasure. He even suggested that the Assemblyman should search him, as it would relieve him from being a subject of suspicion, which offer was of course declined. We learn that several robberies of a similar nature have of late taken place on our river steamers, and would caution our friends who may be travelling. Sometimes a person will take one of the berths of a state-room, and after he succeeds in making a haul he will pass out the proceeds of his villainy to an outside party, who acts the part of an accomplice, which relieves the principal in the transaction of any danger of detection in case a search should be instituted.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—On the 30th of November, as Bradley V. Sargent, together with his wife and three children, were returning from Monterey to their residence in Carmello, in a carriage, in descending a hill near the residence of Judge Haight, the harness gave way, letting the pole down, when the horses ran away, upsetting the carriage and throwing out Mr. Sargant and family with terrific force. They were all picked up in an insensible condition and taken to the house of Judge Haight. From two o'clock P. M. until midnight Mr. and Mrs. Sargent remained insensible. The former had his colar bone broken, and was otherwise injured. Mrs. Sargent was covered with contusions; their little girl had her leg broken below the knee, and was badly hurt about the head; and the infant was severely injured. At last accounts they were slowly but surely regaining their health and strength.

For all Bills of $10 00 and upwards, where immediate payment is not made in gold or silver, a Note, payable in the same and drawing two per cent. per month interest after ninety days, will be required.

FRED. MORSE, M. D.

To my generous patrons and REAL friends

I wish to say that the above is no proceeding against them, bnt on the contrary is intended for their benefit as well as my own, as it gives them 20 per cent. while it gives me legal recourse upon those who would patronize but never pay. This latter class are ever ready to praise the physician when in pain, but when required to pay for their relief, speak of him as a 'Quack,' 'Bad man,' &c., whom they never intend to employ again. To such I would say, don't send for me without the money in your pocket. But to the afflicted friend who respects my medical attainments and character as a man I say, send, and if you don't happen to have the money, I will serve you as faithfully as I would serve a Rothschild.

N.B.—To all my debtors who will come forward and settle by the first of January next, I will give 20 per cent. of their Bills, as I wish to open new books upon a new system at that time.

DR. HOSTETTER'S

STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutricious blood, and nutricious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digenstion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the brokendown frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wanted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthful invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females.

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances & derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the oppressed mental powers, as well as stregthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

Beware of Counterfeits. Purchase only of reliable dealers, Sold everywhere.

Dr. Guysott's Improved

EXTRACT OF

Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla

Will Cure without Fail

Scrofula or King's Evil, Cancers, Tumors, Eruptions of the skin, Erysipelas, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ringworm or Tetter, Scald Head, Rheumatism, Pains in the Bones and Joints, Old Sores and Ulcers, Salt Rhrum, Diseases of the Kidneys, Loss of Appetite, Disease arising from the use of Mercury, Pain in the Side and Shoulder, General Debility, Dropsy, Jaundice, Lumbago, &c.

Dr. Guysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla put up in the largest sized bottles, contains more of the Honduras Sarsaparilla than any other preparation extant, which is combined with the extract of Yellow Dock, the extract of Wild Cherry and the Balsam of Fir, thus making the remedy more thoroughly efficient that any other Sarsaparilla before the public. At the same time it is perfectly free from ALL mineral poisons, whish can not be said of any other of the Sarsaparilla compounds. The Invalid should beware of poisons. Mercury, Iron, Quinine, Potash, Iodine, Sulphur, Arsenic, and many other mineral and metalic poisons enter into and form the active basis of most of the sarsaparilla and panaceas of the day. Guysott's Compound Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla does not contain a particle of the substances; as any one can ascertain by applying the necessary tests.

These poisons may occasionally remove disease, but they so vitiate the blood and impregnate the whole system with their baneful effects, that the first cold or the first attack of disease, prostrates the patient's strength and subjects him or her to the most excruciating torture, and renders another cure almost impossible and hopeless. Let all poisonous sarsaparilla preparations alone, and use Guysott's Improved Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, which is thoroughly efficacious, perfectly harmless and purely vegetable. All kinds of diseases yield to its genial influence.

Caution.—Beware of counterfeits. All genuine Dr. Guysott's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla has the name of JOHN D. PARK, Present Proprietor, Cincinnati, O., on the label.

Remember this fact when buying, all without the name of "JOHN D. PARK, Cincinnati, Ohio," on the label are counterfeit.

METRICAL "FEET."—An individual, who we suspect is too poor to speculate in mining "feet," and yet who must feel feverish in his pedal extremities, sends us a string of verses, commencing—

"The girl I love, whose azure eyes
In liquid brightness, or lambent glances
Shine all for me with glad surprise,
And fill my soul with joyous fancies," &c.

"How are you, to-night?" You should get a tape line, and measure your verses off by feet, as they do in Washoe in silver ledges, and then "prospect" for the idea contained in them. Perhaps your fair divinity might admire your metrical composition, but we never speculate in any kind of "feet," though we admire them very much when attached to a nice little feminine, and therefore we shall allow your "feet" to travel to some other quarter.—Napa Reporter.

A WIT, upon leaving a church where the psalms had been sung in a very wearisome manner, observed to his companion, "Now I know why Saul wanted to kill David."

LICK HOUSE,

ALSTROM & CO.--The undersigned, formerly proprietors of the Oriental Hotel, respectfully inform the public that they have purchased the Lease and Furniture of the Lick House. Our friends and the public can rest assured that we shall leave nothing undone to merit their patronage.

It is conceded that the Lick House, has far superior advantages over all other hotels in California.

The house being but three stores high, the rooms are easy of access, well lighted, and contain all the modern improvements; the staircase and halls are wide, spacious and airy.

The Kitchen and Pantry are being enlarged, and we are certain of being able to give complete satisfaction in the Dining-hall department.

The Office will be under the superintendence of Mr. FRANK J. LAWLOR, late of the St. Nicholas, New York.

PATENT COMBINED GANG PLOW, SEED SOWER AND HARROW.

We have purchased the right this great labor-saving implement for the State of California, and are having a number made in the Atlantic States for this market.

With this combined Machine one man, with six horses, can do the work of three twelve inch plows, besides sowing the grain, and harrowing it in as he proceeds, thus finishing his work in the best manner possible, without being obliged to travel over the plowed ground. This Machine was very thoroughly tested by the farmers of Santa Clara county, where some eighty are now in use; also, by the Messrs. Hensel & Kethley, of this county, and Messrs. Hoppin Brothers, near Cacheville, Yolo county. It is made very substantial; is not liable to get out of order, and being on large truck wheels, the Gang Plow, Seed Rower and Harrow, runs lighter than three plows would, cutting the same amount of land.

We are desirous of having these plows generally introduced throughout the State, and are therefore prepared to offer very favorable inducements to farmers and the trade. The following are some of the names of our customers who have used them for the past two seasons:

Sacramento county.—Hensel & Kethley.
Yolo county.—Hoppin Brothers, L M Curtis, Caleb Davis, C Travers, A J Scroggins.
Sutter county.—M Boulware, A L Chandler.
Colusa county.—James Timothy, J Crouch.
Butte county.—Major J Bidwell.
Placer county.—E Miles.
